

#16DAYS16STORIES

16days.idas.org.uk

Webinar series

26th November 10 am - 11 am

Post -separation Abuse

Family Court & protective Orders

Understand the civil orders available to assist people affected by domestic abuse and how the civil and family courts are involved in domestic abuse cases.

3rd December 10 am - 11 am

Female Genital Mutilation, Forced Marriage and 'Honour Based' Abuse

IDAS and partners, HALO Project

A presentation about Female Genital Mutilation, Forced Marriage and 'Honour Based' Abuse and the partnership between Halo and IDAS, leading experts in the field of domestic abuse.

haloproject.org.uk

@haloprojectuk

9th December 2 pm - 3 pm

Financial and economic abuse

IDAS and partners, Claire Throssell, survivor & campaigner, Citizens Advice and Department for Work & Pensions (DWP).

Find out more about financial and economic abuse with our team of experienced Independent Domestic Violence Advisors alongside, domestic abuse survivor Claire Throssell, Citizens Advice & DWP.

Coming soon

Tech Abuse and the Internet of Things

IDAS and partners in Cyber Crime at South Yorkshire Police

Increasingly, technology is being abused by perpetrators to further control and monitor victims and survivors. This recorded presentation highlights the extent to which the technology we rely on is being used as tools of abuse.

To find out more visit

courses.idas.org.uk

Safe lives, free from abuse and violence

IDAS (Independent Domestic Abuse Services) is a registered charity in England and Wales Number: 1102337. Company Number: 4984337

